Mass Intentions

Such a beautiful tradition the church has, to offer a Mass up for those we care about.

Remember, Mass Intentions do not have to be just for the dead. They make beautiful gifts for any special occasion: birthday, anniversary, graduation, those preparing to receive a Sacrament.

You can also offer an intention for someone who is struggling with a serious illness or other life trauma.

To request a Mass Intention, come to the Parish Office during office hours. Requests will be honored on a first-come, first-serve basis in the order in which the request is received.

“If it is ‘daily bread’, why do you take it once a year?... Take daily what is to profit you daily. Live in such a way that you may deserve to receive it daily. He who does not deserve to receive it daily, does not deserve to receive it once a year.”
~ St. Ambrose of Milan

Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration Wednesday's 8:30AM - 12PM

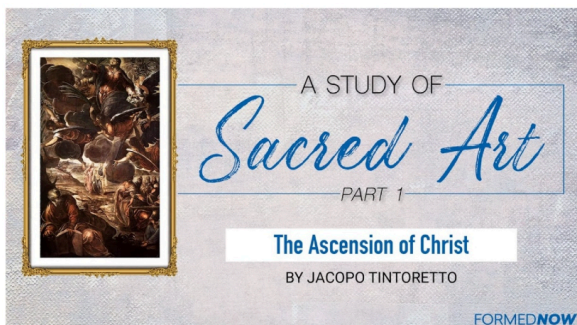

Adoration Chapel

Because the Eucharist is the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Lord;

It is imperative that we must never leave the Blessed Sacrament unattended. Will you spend an hour with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament? Sign up sheets are in the vestibule.

Eucharistic Adoration Prayer-

I adore you Jesus, true God, and true man, present in the holy Eucharist,
kneeling before you and united in spirit
with all the faithful on earth and all the saints in heaven.
In gratitude for so great a blessing,
I love you with all my heart,
for you are worthy of all praise and adoration.
Lord Jesus Christ, may I never offend you with my lack of love.
May your eucharistic presence
refresh me in body and soul.
Mary, Mother of the Eucharistic Lord, pray for me and obtain for me
a greater love for Jesus.
Amen

This month, members of the OCIA are completing the period of Mystagogy, leading up to Pentecost by delving deeper into the Catholic spiritual life and learning how to integrate into life in the parish community.

Our Lady Set Forth from Fatima to Claim Her Dominion Through the Pilgrim Virgin Statue

The world-famous International Pilgrim Virgin Statue (IPVS) of Fatima was sculpted in 1947 by famous sculptor José Thedim. The image reflects the precise instructions of Sister Lucia (the surviving seer at Fatima). Her desire was that the pilgrim image represent Our Lady's position when she revealed herself as the Immaculate Heart to the Shepherds in 1917.

The Spiritual Presence of Our Blessed Mother

In the presence of hundreds of thousands of pilgrims at Fatima, the statue was blessed by the Bishop of Fatima on October 13, 1947. It was the second "twin" statue commissioned as the Pilgrim Virgin that would carry the blessings of Fatima to the West (including the Americas) while the first statue, commissioned on May 13, 1947, would travel to the East. The purpose of the Pilgrim Virgin Statue tours was and still is to bring the graces of Fatima and Our Lady's message of hope, peace and salvation to those many millions of people who may never have an opportunity to make a pilgrimage to Fatima itself.

The Bishop entrusted the statue to John Haffert, co-founder of the Blue Army, and prayed that Mary herself accompany the statue wherever it goes. Mr. Haffert had met with Sister Lucia in 1946 to understand what Our Lady wanted of the Catholic faithful and together they composed what came to be known as the Blue Army Pledge.

Six days after the blessing, Mr. Haffert brought the statue to Canada where it was solemnly crowned on the grounds of Ottawa University by the Most Rev. Alexandre Vachon, D.D., Archbishop of Ottawa.

On December 8, 1947, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the statue entered the United States in Buffalo, NY. The Buffalo police reported that they witnessed the greatest traffic jams in their history when nearly 200,000 people lined the streets to welcome Our Lady. In the intervening two years, under the direction of Monsignor William McGrath, the first statue custodian, the Pilgrim Virgin statue visited more than 50 dioceses in Canada and the United States, filling cathedrals, churches and other venues from Boston to California, from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. In the St. Louis cathedral, 310,000 people were in attendance in one week; in the Buffalo cathedral, 220,000 were present during a stay of 35 hours; and 125,000 attended Our Mother of Sorrows church in Chicago, in a single day.

On May 13, 1951, the statue arrived at Fatima at the close of the Holy Year designated by Pope Pius XII. Over a million people were there for this solemn occasion. During his radio address, His Holiness remarked: "In 1946, I crowned Our Lady of Fatima as Queen of the World and the following year, through the Pilgrim Virgin, She set forth as though to claim Her dominion, and the favors She performs along the way are such that we can hardly believe what we are seeing with our eyes."

A Special Blessing for the Pilgrim Virgin Tours

On October 24, 1952, Pope Pius XII blessed the statue and imparted a special blessing on the work of the Fatima Pilgrim Tours. Largely through the Pilgrim Virgin Statue tours, Mr. Haffert went on to spread the Message of Fatima worldwide and more than 20 million people signed the Blue Army Pledge. The Bishop of Fatima accompanied

Mr. Haffert and the statue custodian on many tours and special "world peace flights." The most famous peace tour occurred on October 16, 1992 when six bishops descended on Red Square in Moscow carrying the Pilgrim Virgin Statue. It was crowned at midnight in front of Lenin's tomb.

An uninterrupted flow of graces and favors have been reported wherever the statue has traveled, including physical cures (which can only be officially pronounced by Church authorities). More important, people are converted and return to the sacraments after many years of being away from the Church.

Sister Lucia Welcomes the Statue

On the occasion of the Eucharistic Congress that took place Lourdes, France in 1981, the statue remained overnight at the convent in Coimbra, Portugal, at Sister Lucia's request. She remarked afterwards that she had never seen any image which so resembled the actual apparition of Our Lady.

John Haffert reported in his book, "Her Own Words": I do not hesitate to say that I myself have seen that image change its appearance. I was privileged to accompany the statue to America, with Canon Oliveira in October 1947. On more than thirty occasions the statue has shed tears and once I myself wiped a tear from its cheek.

Above: John Haffert and Canon Galamba carry Pilgrim Virgin brass plane on arrival in the U.S. in October 1947. Below: Cleanup.

That Lucia found the image "so much like Our Lady" is remarkable. In 1946 I had shown Lucia many pictures of Our Lady, hoping that she would say that one was more like Our Lady than another. She looked at every one of the images with almost absolute indifference.

None...not even the most beautiful, resembled the actual vision of Our Lady who was "more brilliant than the sun." Indeed, Our Lady appeared to be so beautiful to all three children that they after seeing Her they wanted to die, finding no beauty any longer in anything on earth! I have never doubted that when Lucia had the Pilgrim Virgin statue in the Coimbra convent overnight, through the miraculous image Our Lady gave her again the experience of Her "presence," even as She conveyed this sense of Her "presence" all around the world through this miraculous image.

The statue has visited more than 100 countries, including Russia and China, bringing the great message of salvation and hope, "the peace plan from Heaven," to countless millions of people.

The custody and mission of this world-famous statue is under the auspice of the World Apostolate of Fatima USA – Our Lady's Blue Army - which continues her journeys throughout the world with its principal statue custodian Patrick L. Sabat.

Miracles, Graces, and Favors Received

Physical cures attributed to the presence of the International Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima have been documented many times. The changes in expression and coloration, and even the pose of the statue have been reported innumerable times.

The important miracles, however, are the spiritual cures and gifts Our Lady bestows. The sudden conversion of a stubborn heretic is a good example. Another important miracle is the enlightenment of someone who has resisted the idea of statues, or the idea of praying to saints.

Spiritual miracles are infinitely more valuable than the things we can see, touch, or measure.

MIRACLES OF TEARS

New Orleans, LA: July 1972

During Her tour of the New Orleans diocese, the statue shed tears on numerous occasions. This was the first time that the press reported widely the miracles of tears from the International Pilgrim Virgin Statue. Although it is known that tears have run from Her glass eyes numerous times before, none of those had gained much attention. This time the press began to report it, large crowds flocked around and even Archbishop Hanann was asked to comment by reporters. He took the statue and had it investigated. That was the first time it was discovered that the moisture was human tears and also the first time photos began to circulate. The statue has shed tears very frequently ever since.

The miracle of tears is something that is often reported. It happens in more than one way. Frequently, an individual sees the tears on the statue while others at the same time do not. Perhaps this is mystical and not physical. But other times all present see the same thing and the tears can be wiped away causing dampness on the cloth. This then is a physical miracle. Regarding the number of times it has occurred, most go undocumented, and almost all go without publicity.

Therefore, although we know it has shed tears dozens, and probably hundreds of times, only a few have been published

[The World Apostolate of Fatima, USA – Our Lady's Blue Army – is a Public Association of the Faithful under the Pontifical Council for the Laity – the official voice of the Vatican on the Message of Fatima. Its mission is to learn, live and spread the message of Our Lady of Fatima, in communion with the Church and in concert with the New Evangelization. How is your Hunger for God?

A presenter for the Pray More Retreats, Beth Davis, speaks about the Israelites. Why? Because they knew hunger. In Exodus 16:2 "the whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness." They thought they were going to die of hunger. God freed them from slavery, yet they preferred the security they knew. They forgot all that God has done for them, because of their hunger for food. We know that God Himself provided for them. He daily provided them with manna from heaven. Are we aware of our Spiritual Hunger? Maybe our spiritual hunger gets pushed to the side with the false food provided by scrolling the internet or any other ways to distract ourselves.

"Jesus is offering us physical, tangible nourishment and spiritual nourishment.

He is offering us His very own flesh. The life of God, the living God, we consume as food to satisfy, to nourish us, both physically and spiritually." -Beth Davis.

God pours himself out to us daily, just as he did for the Israelites, wanting to give us Himself and satisfy our every need in the form of the Eucharist. A gift greater in breadth and scope than the manna from heaven.

"Behold, I am with you always,

even to the end of the age, says the Lord"

-Matthew 28:20

Mary: The Church's First

In the Gospel of John, we see the powerful scene in which Jesus gives to the Church his final gift: "Behold, your mother!" (John 19:27). Here we see Jesus inaugurating Mary's role as mother of the Church. Therefore, it should be no surprise that from the very earliest time of the Church, Christians have turned to Mary as their spiritual mother for her prayers and her motherly help.
